connected with Bangalore in Karnataka by Alliance Air and Jet Airways as per the following details:

Alliance Air:

*Chennai-Bangalore-Mangalore and return—3 flights/week

(*The above flights are temporarily withdrawn w.e.f. 15.6.2002 to 30.9.2002)

Jet Airways:

Bangalore-Mangalore-Bangalore — Daily

Due to commitment of fleet, Indian Airlines has no plans at present to airlink Bangalore with major cities of Karnataka.

Jet Airways had conducted market survey to connect Hubli/Belgaum/ Mysore with Bangalore but due to commercial/technical reason, operations on these routes are not found feasible. Further, airlines provide air services to specific places taking into consideration the traffic demand and commercial viability subject to compliance of route dispersal guidelines.

Sale of air tickets by authorised companies

†2079. SHRI RAJIV RANJAN SINGH 'LALAN':
SHRI RAM JETHMALANI:

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that several firms have been authorised for sale of air tickets by the Department of Civil Aviation;

(b) if so, the total number of firms so authorised till June, 2002;

(c) whether it is also a fact that a directive to this effect is included in the agreement while authorising that under sub rule 5 (f) of the agreement no authorised firm would sell tickets below the fixed price;

(d) if so, whether Government have received any complaints in this regard;

(e) if so, the details thereof; and

(f) the action taken in this regard so far?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI SHRIPADYESSO NAIK): (a) and (b) The Department of Civil Aviation does not authorise sale of air tickets. However Air India and Indian Airlines appoint agents for passenger and cargo sales. The total number
